Certificate IV in Ageing Support

This qualification reflects the role of support workers who complete specialised tasks and functions in aged services; either in residential, home or community based environments.

Workers will take responsibility for their own outputs within defined organisation guidelines and maintain quality service delivery through the development, facilitation and review of individualised service planning and delivery.

Workers may be required to demonstrate leadership and have limited responsibility for the organisation and the quantity and quality of outputs of others within limited parameters.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Access to Higher Level Skills funding eligibility can be found at https://desbt.qld.gov.au/_data/assets/pdf_file/0026/7784/hls-student-factsheet.pdf. The Queensland Skills Gateway displays the courses available under the Higher Level Skills program and provides information about what they cover, the careers they can lead to and the training providers approved to deliver them – visit www.training.qld.gov.au/skillsgateway. For some subsidised courses under the program, the industry and training package requires the Student to hold a Certificate III in Individual Support (or superseded qualification) and be an Existing Worker in the Aged Care industry. These restrictions and/or exemptions are detailed in the Priority Skills List. Prospective students must not have or be enrolled in a certificate IV level or higher qualification. The Higher-Level Skills Program is funded by Queensland Government.
